* Vermont's seed in tournament

VERMONT'S POSTSEASON HISTORY

2003 NCAA Tournament

The Catamounts made their first-ever NCAA appearance in 2003 as a #16 seed when they traveled to Salt Lake City, Utah to face #1 seed Arizona. Vermont fell 80-51 in the contest, in what would be the first of three straight trips to the NCAA Tournament.

2004 NCAA Tournament

Vermont, a #15 seed, jumped out to an early 7-0 lead against second-seeded Connecticut but the Huskies wore the Catamounts down to pull out a 70-53 victory on March 18 in Buffalo, N.Y. T.J. Sorrentine led the Cats with 19 points, while Taylor Coppenrath added 12.

2005 NCAA Tournament

After a 24-6 mark during the regular season, Vermont earned a #14 seed on its way to stunning Syracuse 60-57 in overtime for the Catamounts first-ever NCAA victory. Germain Mopa Njila had a huge game with 20 points, nine rebounds, five assists and four steals to lead the Cats. Vermont battled a tough Michigan St. team in the second round, but fell 72-61.

2007 NIT

Vermont made its first Postseason NIT appearance in 2007, earning a seven seed and traveling to second-seeded Kansas State. The Catamounts showed their grit against a Big 12 opponent on its home court, leading 57-50 with 5:07 remaining. The Wildcats would score the final nine points of the game though, to earn a 59-57 win.

2009 CBI

Maurice Joseph and Marqus Blakely combined to score 45 points to lead Vermont to a 76-72 victory over Green Bay in the College Basketball Invitational First Round. The Cats then traveled to face Oregon State in the quarterfinals, falling just short in overtime, 71-70.

2010 NCAA Tournament

Senior Marqus Blakely paced the Cats in his final game in a Vermont uniform with 17 points, nine rebounds and four steals but it wasn't enough as the #16 seeded Catamounts fell to #1 seed Syracuse 79-56 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament on March 19 in Buffalo, N.Y.

2011 NIT

Vermont earned a spot in the NIT by winning the America East Regular Season Championship. The seventh-seeded Catamounts traveled to face second seed Cleveland State and fell 63-60. Matt Glass had a good look at a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have sent the game into overtime, but it bounced on the rim four times and just fell out.

2012 NCAA Tournament

Vermont won the America East Championship for the fifth time in the last 10 years when it knocked off top seed Stony Brook on the road. The Catamounts advanced to the NCAA Tournament where they topped Lamar in the First Four for only their second-ever NCAA victory, before falling to No. 1 North Carolina.

2013 CBI

Vermont finished the 2012-13 campaign with a 21-12 mark and posted their fifth straight 20-win season and 10th in the last 12 years. Vermont advanced to the America East Championship Game for the eighth time in 12 years and earned its fifth straight postseason appearance after being selected to the 2013 CBI. The Catamounts traveled to Santa Clara for a first round match up. Sandro Carissimo paced four Catamounts in double figures with a team-high 14 points, but the Broncos outlasted Vermont to post a 77-67 win.
